FRONT END WEB DEVELOPER

"I AM AN IDEAS PERSON NEW TO THE DEVELOPMENT WORLD AND AS SUCH LOOKING FOR A TEAM TO HELP GUIDE ME, IN EXCHANGE SO THAT I MIGHT PROVIDE MEANINGFUL CONTENT."

A graduate of the Web Development Immersive Program, I have recently made the all important leap into pursuing my passion for coding full-time. Throughout my diverse career, I have been able to take from each pursuit a new skill set. I am a confident, inquisitive, kind and determined individual always striving to learn something new and see how it can be applied. My interest in learning is what lead me to coding - as I was looking for another way to challenge myself. It has also taught me that
